REFERENCE: (a) Memorandum from this office, same subject, dated 20 Aug 53

(b) Memorandum from Chief, Psychological Warfare Division USAF, same subject, dated 18 Jun 53

ATTACHMENTS: (A) The story of "DAS NEUE DEUTSCHLAND"
(B) Use of printed materials in psychological warfare (lecture outline)
(C) Newspapers, Magazines, News-letters (lecture text)
(D) Language in Psychological Warfare (lecture outline)
(E) Approaches to black (lecture text).

1. The attached training materials are transmitted in response to your request in reference (b).

2. We have no texts pertaining to equipment since our personnel are instructed to avail themselves of locally available equipment and to avoid any standardization.

3. All of the texts herewith are classified SECRET. Attachment (A) refers to wartime activities which even now must not be disclosed, while attachments (B) through (E) contain instructions of a highly sensitive nature which are imparted to certain of our personnel. We shall, therefore, appreciate your restricting the circulation of these papers in accordance with paragraph 2 of reference (b), and we are especially desirous that no connection between them and this Agency become apparent to students in training programs.

4. This office is definitely interested to receive in turn any training texts or other instructional materials which your division either has already prepared or may issue in the future.
